A HUGE STEP TOWARDS EXCELLENCE

As per the directives given by Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University, Amravati and with the inspiration of Hon. Vice Chancellor Dr. Dileep Malkhede, a one-day CBCS-NEP Executors training programme was organised on 17/09/2022. The programmes were organised at 70 different centres across five districts under the jurisdiction of Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University, Amravati at the same time. One such workshop is organised by Nutan Vidarbha Shikshan Mandal's Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Amravati and HVPM's degree College of physical education Amravati. The workshop was jointly supported by three more colleges.

Total 122 participants were present for the workshop. In the inauguration session, all the principals and the master trainer was present. Principal Dr Avinash Moharil while addressing the inaugural session thanked the Hon. Vice chancellor of Saint Gadge Baba Amravati University, Amravati. Dr Dilip Malkhede for providing this opportunity to organise such a great workshop on one of the most important topics which need to be addressed immediately. As Saint Gadge Baba Amravati University, Amravati has already implemented the choice-based credit system from the academic session 2000-23, it has become necessary to inspire the teachers to understand all the parameters of this new scheme so as to make it beneficial for the students. At this moment, the Principal of degree College of physical education Dr Upadhyay said that this is a golden opportunity for all of us to know the various aspects of new choice-based credit system and implement it with enthusiasm and creativity.

COMMON INAUGURATION

A common inauguration of the programme was conducted centrally by the university in which many dignitaries were present to address the gathering. The participants joined digitally to this inauguration and understood the concept behind the organisation. While addressing to this inauguration function honourable Vice Chancellor of Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University, Amravati Dr Dilip Malgudi considered this as a historical event to organise this program at 70 different places at a time and providing training to thousands of teachers about newly implemented choice-based credit system by the university.

SESSION: 1

In the first session, Dr Nitin Saraf elaborated the total choice-based credit system and the various components involved in it. He has discussed various terminologies like discipline specific core, discipline specific elective, skill modules and the various aspects of credit system. He has also narrated the concept of credit and its relation with the workload of the teacher. He has insisted to understand every aspect of this scheme so as to implement it in the best possible way. After the first session, various questions were raised which were addressed by Dr Nitin Saraf and Dr Avinash Moharil with elaborate explanations and illustrations.

SESSION: 2

In the second session, Dr Saraf concentrated on the skill models to be introduced in the choice-based credit system. By giving different illustrations, He has explained how these skill modules will offer the students an opportunity to grow and become competent to seek jobs or to become entrepreneurs in future. He has given examples from various subjects and very positively elaborated how the subjects can be converted into skill modules by considering 20% of curriculum conversion. In this session he has also discussed the various tables in which the implementation of choice-based credit system and the various components are given. After this session the attendees have asked many queries regarding these skill modules and the credits to be offered for co-curricular and extracurricular activities in the institutions. There was a long discussion about recognising the various organisations for the purpose of internship, apprenticeship, work experience and field work. All the queries were answered properly and the rules were discussed to clarify the doubts.

SESSION: 3

In the third session Dr Nitin Saraf elaborated the concept related to massive open online courses which are available for the students on SWAYAM portal. He has explained the process of registration and the method of execution of these courses for the benefit of the students. He has also talked about academic bank of credit in which the credits earned by the students can be stored and may be used in future for their educational purpose. He has categorically mentioned that this new system needs to be implemented with a positive approach and a very strong and determined willpower of the teachers. By this way it is necessary to build a positive atmosphere about the choice-based credit system.

PANEL DISCUSSION

After all the sessions, a panel discussion was organised to address the queries of the attendees. Many issues were raised by the participants regarding credits, credit transfer, skill models and other issues which are necessary in regard which students benefit. The panel is where the principles Who addressed the issues thoughtfully and a holistic discussion was conducted in this session. Degree College of physical education has already implemented the choice-based credit system and so their experiences were also shared in the panel discussion. The representatives of education colleges discussed their problems and through discussion All the panellist tried to find out solutions to the issues related to education colleges.

CONCLUDING SESSION

In the concluding session the secretary of Hanuman Vyayam Prasarak Mandal Dr Madhuri Chendke expressed her gratitude towards the university for giving the opportunity to conduct such a nice work shop in their premises. She considered the program highly successful and fruitful as it provided an introspective vision and thoughtful provocation to the teachers present Who will be the torchbearers of this new choice-based credit system in future. In the end Dr Avinash Moharil, principal Mahila Mahavidyalaya expressed gratitude towards one and all for providing help, opportunity and support to organise such a huge event which will prove a landmark for the benefit of the students.

CONCLUSION

The program proved to be a great success to understand the newly introduced choice-based credit system by Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University, Amravati. In all there were 122 participants present to attend this program jointly hosted by Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Amravati and degree College of physical education Amravati. Throughout the day, Brainstorming sessions were conducted and many queries and doubts were cleared by the master trainer Dr Nitin Saraf, Principal Dr. Avinash Moharil and the other panels. With great help of technical staff the event was highly successful without any technical fault. In the end certificate is well distributed to the attendees.

Name of the Activity:

Workshop on Communication Skills in English for Students, Faculties and Office employees

Aim and Objectives:

To understand the importance of communication in English

To gain mastery over communication in English

To understand how to communicate easily in English

Report:

According to the proposed plan, the department of English decided to organize a workshop on Communication Skills in English. Nowadays English language has become the most important medium of communication and business. Therefore, communication in English has become the need of the hour. But people living in Vidarbha have been lagging behind in this area. The employees working with the office should be able to communicate well in English. Therefore, with an objective to understand the importance of communication in English, the department of English organized the workshop for students, all the faculties and office employees on Oct.6, 2022 at A.V. Theater of the college.

The workshop was organized in two sessions. The resource person for the first session was Mr. Manoj Kalbende, LIC officer, and Dr. Pallavi Ambhore was the resource person for the second session. The workshop was organized under the chairpersonship of Mr. Sachin S. Deshmukh, Director of Physical Education. Dr. Vijay G. Wardikar, Librarian was prominently present on the dais. At the outset, the welcome Song was sung by a group of students. Mr. J.N Parate explained the objectives behind this workshop.

Mr. Manoj Kalbende, in his speech, highlighted the importance of communication skills in English. He explained four modes: reading, writing, speaking, and listening. He also explained at length how to improve our knowledge of the English language by reading English newspapers. President Mr.

Sachin Deshmukh stated that the use of the English language in our daily communication has become the need of the hour. Therefore, we should make more and more use of the English language in our daily life.

The second session of the workshop was chaired by Dr. Vijay Wardikar, Librarian, Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Amravati. The resource person Dr. Pallavi Ambhore stated the importance of communication in English language and its benefits, as it is the global language as well as the language of internet. Therefore, to gain more knowledge one must learn this language. She also proposed some simple tricks to improve English language and get command on it. Dr. Vijay Wardikar told the benefits of reading English books. He told to start with short stories at the same time practice of speaking small sentences regularly.

The workshop was concluded on the note of vote of thanks proposed by the student Ms. Anusaya Sargar. Special efforts were taken by Assistant Prof. Ms. Snehal Rathod and Mr. Anil Manvar for the success of the workshop. Huge no. of students, all the faculties and office staff attended the workshop enthusiastically.

Outcomes –

1. Participants gained practical knowledge how to correct the common errors in English
2. Participants got easy methods to improve English communication skills
3. Participants got an opportunity to upgrade their communication skills in English
4. Participants learnt the basic English modes of reading, writing, speaking and listening
